The Reinheitsgebot, sometimes called the "Bavarian Purity Law" in English, was the original doctrine regulating beer.

In the original text, the only ingredients that could be used in the production of beer were water, barley and hops.

Lucky for us, we live in America! Just take a look at all these beers. Fruit beers, beers with bourbon, and beers with all sorts of spices brewed right in with the rest of mash.

So, tip a glass in appreciation to the innovative and highly skilled brewers across America and the rest of the world.

Prost!
